Hestetter's Bitters on the Battle-Picid.

It is satisfactory to know that our field hospitals are no longer manapplied with this life-naving preusration. Soldiers who, as private sitisens had become sequainted with its properties, have in many metancas made a special request that HOSTETTEL'S STOMACH SETPER | might be added to the medical stores of their regmonts, and their wishes have not been unborded. As a means of anstaining wounded mea on the battle field, and of enabling troops t bear fatiguing macches under a blazing sun, is fine been streamonsly recommended by distinguished medical man, and the prospect is find it will aventually supercode all the a dulterated tinctures, figures, and designous These that have herstolere been considered medicinal duples. The fact that a small considered medicinal captes. The fact that a small quantity of the Bitters mixed with water from any of the Southern or South-weatern rivers will proven a free sfiecking the bowels or the Byer, should be borne in mind by Army Physicians, spiduars, and all-who have occasion to visit those perfects of our country. The man who uses HOSTETTER'S BITTERS in conformity with the directions, may set at defining Intermittent Fever and all other diseases generated by the action of all unwindesome atmosphere upon an overtaxed frame.
